

Cross-truth double dissociation: captured interaction fraction ($1 - \text{NMSE median}$) per in-lane identity; outlined cells = own-truth (diagonal), plain = cross-truth; negative = worse than predicting no interaction

